

POPS CLAIM TEXAS.

The Result is Yet Very Uncertain However.

Democratic Plurality is Certainly Greatly Reduced.

BIG POPULIST GAINS.

Strongest Populist Precincts Not Been Heard From.

ARKANSAS, Texas, Nov. 9.—Texas, too, was caught in the slide of Republican victory, but by Populists instead of Republicans. The time-worn plurality of 180,000 for Democracy is a thing of the past. Yesterday's returns very materially change the situation from that of Wednesday, when the Democrats were confident of a plurality of 80,000, and are now satisfied if barely ahead. Every return throughout the state shows phenomenal Populist gains, and may possibly indicate the election of Nugent, the Populist nominee for governor. The state is claimed by both parties. The Populists claim a plurality of 80,000 for Nugent, while the Democrats only claim the state for Calhoun by 80,000. The Democratic stronghold have been heard from, while the Populists are yet to receive returns from the country districts.

The latest returns would seem to indicate that Kearby, Populist, has been elected in the Sixth district over Abbott by a small plurality; Bull, Democrat, over Jenkins, Populist, in the Eighth district; Gilliland, Populist, over Cockrell, Democrat, in the Thirteenth; Norman, Republican, over Houston, Democrat, in the Twelfth; Weldon, Republican, over Crain, Democrat, in the Eleventh; Pendleton, Democrat, is elected over Baber, Populist, in the Seventh; Calhoun, Democrat, over Davis, Populist, in the Fourth; Youkam, Democrat, over Perkins, Populist, in the Third; Bailey, Democrat, over Broder, Populist, in the Fifth; Crowley, Democrat, over Dozenthal, Republican, in the Sixth. First, Second and Ninth return Hutchinson, Cooper and Sayers, Democrats.

THE NEXT CONGRESS.

The Republicans Will at Least Have 229 Members in the House.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—On the strength of returns received last night Chairman Babcock of the Republican congressional committee figures the Republican representation in the next house will be at least 229 members. The dispatch that caused the greatest surprise was one stating that Representative McMillin of Tennessee was possibly defeated. It came from the chairman of the Republican state central committee of Tennessee and added that the returns in the district were not all in.

Chairman Babcock is especially elated over the report that the Republicans have carried the state senate in this state of Wisconsin. He says this was the initial fight of the campaign and in some respects the most important part of it from a Republican standpoint, owing to the fact that the Republicans desire to redistrict the state and have been unable to do so because of the opposition of the Democratic senate members. Now assured that the Republicans will have the senate as well as the house and says they will certainly redistrict the state at the next election.

Chairman Babcock says that from present indications the Republicans will have at least forty-four members in the senate and in this number is included Senator Jones of Nevada.

IN MISSOURI.

Republican by at Least 5,000.—Only Four Democratic Congressmen Safe.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 9.—The result of the Missouri election is becoming clearer, and the extent of Republican success tolerably well defined. There is no doubt that the Republican state ticket has been successful, and that W. M. Robinson for supreme judge, J. R. Kirk for superintendent of schools, and Joseph Flory for railroad commissioner are elected by not less than 5,000 plurality.

Two congressional districts are still in doubt, the Second (Hall's) and the Ninth (Champ Clark's). Both are claimed by the Republicans and Democrats, and it will take the official returns to settle the contest in them. De Armond, Democrat, in the Sixth, according to the latest returns, has carried that district by a plurality of 54. This may be overcome, however, when the official count is made. As the delegation now stands it is composed of nine Republicans and four Democrats, with the above two districts in doubt.

WILL CONTEST DOCKERY.

Republicans Claim That His Election Was Secured by Fraud.

EXCELSIOR SPRINGS, Mo., Nov. 9.—Mr. Dockery has a contest on hand. The Republicans claim there is abundant evidence to show that frauds at the election were committed sufficient to show that Orton and not Dockery was lawfully chosen representative last Tuesday. The Republican central committee has issued the following manifesto:

"To the Republicans of the Third Congressional District.—Mr. Dockery is claiming his election on the unofficial returns of the counties in the district, and while the face of the returns may show a small plurality for Mr. Dockery, the Republican central committee is in possession of facts and information to the effect that gross frauds have been perpetrated in Clay, Ray, and other counties in the interest of Mr. Dockery, and of such magnitude as to justify the committee in claiming the election of Judge H. G. Orton by the honest votes of the district. The committee is not basing its claims on mere assumption, but facts that, when properly presented to the national house of representatives and investigated by that body, will warrant the seating of Mr. Orton as the representative of the Third congressional district.

E. L. Moxey, Chairman,
H. C. Miller, Secretary."

LETTERS FROM WAITE.

He Writes to the Chairman of Colorado's Populist Committee.

DENVER, Col., Nov. 9.—Governor Waite has written the following letter to H. G. Clark, chairman of the Populist state central committee: "I am informed that you feel badly over the result. Of course a great deal of fault is found. Now every body knew that 'the old cow' would eat up the gristlestone. It would be singular indeed if there had been no fault in the management, but I am persuaded that nothing that was done or left undone by the state central committee or by any of the candidates, could have changed the result. We may as well accept our defeat philosophically. We have lost this fight, but our cause is just, and therefore immortal.

"In an especial manner I wish to impress upon you my entire confidence in your integrity. The stars and their courses have fought against us, but freedom's battle bequeathed for sure to us, though often lost is ever won."

MR. BLAND'S DEFEAT.

He Takes It Philosophically and Gives His View as to the Cause.

LEXINGTON, Mo., Nov. 9.—In reply to a request that he would give the press his views on the result of Tuesday's election, Mr. R. P. Bland stated he was so overwhelmed with the unexpected nature of the returns from all parts of the country that he was not prepared to give an opinion for publication of the causes which led to the landslide. He attributed his own defeat, however, very largely to overconfidence among his political friends in Democratic counties resulting in a dangerous falling-off in the Democratic vote. He takes defeat philosophically and is of the opinion that the Republican victory will prove a valuable lesson to Missouri Democrats. Additional returns, received last evening, reduce Dr. Hubbard's supposed plurality of 600 over Mr. Bland, to 104, and it may require the official vote to determine whether Mr. Bland is actually defeated.

WHAT GOVERNOR STONE SAYS.

He Concedes the Loss of Missouri to the Republicans.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Nov. 9.—Governor Stone was in a more communicative humor yesterday and says that the loss of the state to the Democracy is due to the "stay at home element." He is very pronounced in his demands for a Western man for president in 1896, and suggested that his thought is to so liberalize and broaden the Democratic platform of that year as to secure a consolidation of all the political elements opposed to the Republican party. He concedes the defeat of the state ticket and the election of a Republican majority in the lower house of the legislature.

NORTH CAROLINA.

The State Lost to the Democrats by About 20,000 Majority.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 9.—Semi-official returns from nearly every county in the state indicate that the fusion ticket, state, judicial and legislative, put out by the Republicans and Populists, is elected by some 20,000 majority.

Only three Democratic congressmen have been elected. Woodward in the Second district, Shaw in the Third, and Lockhart, in the Sixth. Crawford is defeated by Pearson in the Ninth by a very small majority.

Jones of Nevada Will Be Returned.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 9.—Senator John P. Jones arrived in the city from Nevada and is highly elated over the success of the silver party in that state. He is confident that the silver party has carried all of the more important offices. Senator Jones also expressed pleasure over the political upheaval in the East.

"But," said he, "no immediate good results can take place, nor any revival in business need be expected until remonetization of silver is carried into effect."

Republican Governor in Tennessee.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 9.—The governorship is still in doubt, both the Republicans and the Democrats claiming the victory. Seventy counties heard from officially and unofficially, give Evans, Republican, 3,000 majority. Of the counties yet to be heard from it is conceded that they are about evenly divided. It looks very much as if Evans was elected, but the result can only be learned by the official count. The legislature is safely Democratic.

In Breckinridge's District.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 9.—The situation in the Ashland district is unchanged. Owens, Democrat, claims 118 plurality, but Judge Denny, Republican, says he is confident of his election when the official returns are counted today. If Owens is given a certificate, Denny will surely contest his seat in congress, on the ground of the refusal to register Republican votes and on account of frauds on election day.

Pennoyer Talks of the Landslide.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 9.—Governor Pennoyer, in an interview on the late election, said: "Two years ago the people jumped out of the frying-pan into the fire. This year they have jumped back into the frying-pan again. This election landslide is really an unwitting rebuke to Cleveland for adhering to the Republican financial policy until the country is nearly bankrupt."

There Will Be no Contest in Maryland.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 9.—The Republican state committee Wednesday announced its determination to contest the three congressional districts carried by the Democrats. Yesterday the committee, after fully discussing the question, resolved that—"Whereas, We have whipped the life out of our opponents; it would be both eternal and useless to kick the party when it lies flat on its back."

Waite to Leave Colorado.

DENVER, Col., Nov. 9.—An evening paper says: "Governor Waite is going to leave Colorado. A well-known Populist says that the governor is thinking over a proposition said to have been made to him to take up his residence in Illinois. It is said that the People's party of Illinois have taken such a liking to the governor that they want him not only to reside among them, but also to lead them to victory as their candidate for governor in 1896."

Secretary McAdoo's Opinion.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Assistant Secretary of the Navy McAdoo expressed his views on Tuesday's election as follows: "To express my feelings and give my opinion on the situation would require a book and the late job when he encountered a Republican landslide with incidental boils, the loss of his cattle and other things, and advised his friends and not his friends to become authors."

The Latest From Nebraska.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 9.—The official vote in seventy-nine out of ninety counties give Holcomb, fusion gubernatorial candidate, 2,563 plurality. There is little probability that this will be materially changed by later returns. The Republican central committee is arranging to contest on allegations of frauds. The legislative returns overwhelmingly Republican.

Democratic Governor in California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—The plurality of Budd, a Democratic candidate for governor in California, will be about 2,000. The Republicans have elected the remainder of the state ticket, and will have a majority of at least twenty in the next legislature. The latest returns show that there is no doubt that the Republicans have six of the seven congressmen.

Strong's Plurality in New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The official vote of New York city for mayor is as follows: William Strong, Republican, 153,043; Hugh J. Grant, Tammany, 153,778; Lucien Sanial, Socialist, 7,381; James McCallum, People's party, 293; George Gattien, Prohibitionist, 866. Strong's plurality, 44,265.

Bayard Wasn't Surprised.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 9.—Ambassador Thomas F. Bayard was asked about the result of Tuesday's election. He said: "I have had grave apprehensions as to the result of the recent elections for some time. It has been by no means an absolute surprise to me."

Tops Get Kiam in Nebraska.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 9.—Congressman Omar M. Kiam, Populist, is certainly re-elected from the Sixth Nebraska district by a majority of 1,428. The official returns can not materially change these figures from every county.

Morton's Plurality 153,838.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Complete returns of New York state show the vote for governor as follows: Morton, 668,712; Hill, 514,874; Morton's plurality, 153,838.

F. BILLINGS OF NEBRASKA.

Helps Germany to Make War on American Beef Cattle.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Agricultural department officials, who are watching the progress of negotiations between Germany and the United States over the question of excluding American cattle, incline to the belief that by the latest move the European power has prepared for a clever stroke of diplomacy. The announcement from semi-official sources that the German government had agreed to leave the crucial point of dispute—whether or not Texas fever could be communicated to other cattle by the importation of American stock—to the preponderance of expert opinion, seemed on its face a material concession to the United States. It might have been accepted as such, but for the qualifying statement that their chief authority would be Frank Billings of Nebraska.

Mr. Billings is a Democrat, and at the beginning of this administration was a candidate, but an unsuccessful one, for the position held by Dr. D. E. Salmon, chief of the bureau of animal industry.

Officials say that it is evident that Germany has secured the writings of Dr. Billings on the subject, hence its avowed intention to rest its case on his opinion. Bureau scientists assert that Dr. Billings has strongly antagonized the department's work recently and think that he may be aiding the Germans in this matter.

MICHAEL KELLY IS DEAD.

BOSTON, Nov. 9.—Michael Kelly, known the country over as the "king" among baseball players, died at the Emergency hospital here at 9:54 o'clock last night from acute pneumonia.

Who Will Succeed Robinson?

WREN CITY, Mo., Nov. 9.—The vacancy in the judicial circuit caused by the election of Judge Robinson to the supreme bench will necessitate the appointment of his successor by Governor Stone, and it is quite probable that the appointee will be E. C. Crow of this city, chairman of the Democratic central committee.

OLNEY ON UNIONS.

The Attorney General's Opinion in the Reading Case.

He Upholds the Side of the Labor Unions.

THE MEN HAVE RIGHTS

Receivers Can't Compel Them to Leave Their Organizations.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 9.—The controversy between the receivers of the Reading railroad company and such employees as are members of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen has prompted an expression of opinion from Attorney General Olney in the form of a letter to Judge Dallas of the United States circuit court, before whom the case is pending. The difficulty between the two organizations reached a crisis on August 12 last, when General Superintendent Seward summoned before him eleven employees and notified them they should abandon the brotherhood as a condition of retaining their places with the railroad company. Vigorous protests were made against this alternative and the brotherhood urged the receivers to withdraw it, but in answer, the receivers, on September 17, wrote: "The policy of this company is well known to be that it will not consent that persons in its service shall owe allegiance to other organizations which may make claims upon them which are incompatible with their duties to their employers. This position was taken advisedly and we have no intention of departing from it."

Attorney General Olney's letter is an exhaustive discussion of the questions presented, and he reviews the various problems and the consistent solutions to be applied in every aspect. In substance he holds that labor unorganized is practically powerless; that in combinations such as this lies the only safeguard of the workingman in his dealings with organized capital; and that his right to belong to such a union—beneficial in intent and purpose—is a legal right which he cannot be deprived of. "The receivers make no complaint of the manner in which the brotherhood employees discharge their respective duties. The notice has been given simply because of such employees' membership of the brotherhood."

"The court, it is admitted, ought not and cannot lay down any such rule on the ground that until either the purposes and objects of the brotherhood, or the means by which they are to be attained, are shown to be illegal.

"Among the means of accomplishing the ends of the brotherhood is the bringing about of a strike. As what a 'strike' is, is not defined by the brotherhood constitution and rules, its precise nature must be determined by the court. And as the brotherhood is entitled to the ordinary presumption of lawfulness for its methods as well as its objects until the contrary is shown, the court will hold the thing termed 'strike' in the brotherhood constitution and rules to be something lawful, unless there be such a thing as a lawful 'strike'."

"But whatever may be customary or probable incidents of accomplishment of a strike, it cannot be ruled that there is no such thing as a legal strike, that every strike must be unlawful."

"In short the question being whether business policy requires the court to approve the rule that a member of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen is ipso facto ineligible as an employee of the receivers of the Reading railroad and an officer of the court, the conclusive consideration may be summed up as follows:

"First—The rule is of doubtful value as a preventive of strikes, because it leaves employees to act upon impulse and from passion, and freed from the restraints of the brotherhood regulations.

"Second—The rule is of doubtful value when the court is the real employer, both from the reluctance of the employed to defy the court's authority and from the power of the latter to speedily and summarily vindicate it.

"Third—The rule is of positively injurious tendency in the disaffection and discontent engendered among employees by the denial to them of rights enjoyed by citizens generally and deemed necessary for their security and comfort.

"Fourth—The repudiation of the rule, on the other hand, has the positive merit of tending to secure for the service the good will of employees and thus promoting its efficiency; of recognizing the real conditions of the capital and labor problem and the fact that labor both has the right to organize and is organized; of illustrating the working, under the most favorable auspices, of the principle of arbitration as the means of adjusting the differences between capital and labor; of demonstrating that there is not one law for one class of the community and another for another, but the same for all, and of thus tending to preserve for the law, and for the judiciary by which it is administered, the general respect and confidence which has always been a marked characteristic, as well as excellence, of our institutions.
